STOP THE WAR
NO TO RACISM
END PRIVATISATION
FOR GLOBAL JUSTICE

The European Social Forum will take place in London 14-17 October!

The ESF is a giant gathering for everyone opposed to war, racism and corporate power, everyone who wants to see global justice, workers' rights and a sustainable society.

The ESF emerged from the spectacular success of the World Social Forum which opened in Porto Alegre, Brazil in 2001. Its first two gatherings in Florence (2002) and Paris (2003) attracted over 50,000 activists from across Europe and beyond.

It is a chance for people from around the world to come together and engage in debate, organise action and build networks to strengthen our movement.

The ESF is a festival of resistance with hundreds of forums and debates involving leading activists from across the world. There will be music, film-showings and exhibitions celebrating the global movement.

The forum is created by and for the movements. If your organisation wants to get involved, affiliate or propose a seminar or workshop go to: www.fse-esf.org
The deadline for meeting proposals is the end of July.

To volunteer to help the language interpretation at the event go to: babels-uk@babels.org
